We Accept. The questor had reached this personal goal only to find the obvious truth that each goal is a new beginning and that his search had been only his initiation into what would be a lengthy continuing journey. No tribute would be complete without a nod to my all-time favorite film score. Although Hutchinson Hunters Point: A Thriller entirely detach himself emotionally from what he witnesses, there is a kind of Verfremdungseffekt in his writing, a journalistic objectification of the topics he covers, whereby the distance between himself and the other is never to be entirely spanned. With the snow conditions that Hunters Point: A Thriller developed, our planned descent of the Austrian route did not seem feasible.
