She has become known as a precise and compassionate observer of the British upper middle class, a segment of society that is often either caricatured or glamorized onscreen.

Speaking of outward appearances, you might like to pull out this old phrase that was to be the Enigma's Achilles' heel. I loved how you used the Fairytale analogy to compare to real life and how there is nothing wrong with being a dreamer and being frustrated as long as you use this frustration to fuel yourself to do something about it.
