Archons Gate (The Pelacia Chronicles Book 2)

There are lots of horror films that deal with children, either as aggressors or as potential victims, but very few have been able to capture both of those ideas simultaneously as well as Jennifer Kent's endlessly fascinating The Babadook.

My Fathers God: And where Plato is wrong (The world of belief Book 2)

But quantitatively speaking there is a gargantuan gulf of difference between God and the living being because God, being infinite, includes everything within Himself while the living being infinitesimal is only a tiny insignificant fragment of a fragment of the vastly unlimited energy of God. Both Puritans and Anglicans continued this tradition in the American colonies.
